

CWGC Project Flow Chart

Briefing about the Project from Chain of Command

Book talk via CWGC website Virtual and face to face available

Begin researching local casualties/casualties of interest (e.g. RAF Squadron equivalent)

Use the Record Form to record research findings

Organise community outreach project to highlight findings

Use internal and external comms and social media to update on the project using #ShareYourTribute

Share your research and discoveries with a wider audience

Coordinate findings, using research form and updating CWGC point of contact regularly

Organise a trip to local cemetery or CWGC memorial

Visit smaller sites in local area, to locate war graves

Submit findings and feedback to the CWGC, in order to be eligible for CWGC Award